

Juhana Harju

Independent advisor on AI, digital resilience, and digital sovereignty

Short bio

Juhana Harju is an independent advisor working at the intersection of artificial intelligence, digital resilience, and European digital sovereignty. He advises ministries, parliaments, regulators, boards, and editors, and writes for decision-makers who must act under uncertainty.

Biography

He is the lead author of a Finnish ministerial report on new technologies and digital resilience, an advisory board member at Statistics Finland, and Head of Growth at Solidate. His public writing has appeared in policy and industry venues across Europe, with recent work on the DC EDIC, sovereign cloud, and the 2026 AI landscape.

He works in English, Finnish, and Swedish, and replies personally from juhana@potamoi.eu. He is based in Helsinki and travels across Europe for keynotes, closed advisory sessions, and policy reviews.

Current focus

Updated April 2026 · Q2/Q3 focus

- Finalising the 2026 ministerial report on new technologies and digital resilience
- Advising Statistics Finland on data infrastructure and statistical capacity
- Building Solidate's growth function across European markets
- Writing on the DC EDIC, sovereign cloud, and the 2026 AI landscape